

GOVERNOR (1940-1949 : MAW) [446]

CORRESPONDENCE, 1940-1949.

27 cu. ft. and 58 microfilm reels

DESCRIPTION: This series contains official and personal correspondence of Governor Maw and his staff and deal with the numerous activities of Governor Maw and his administration during an eventful period of American history. Key issues of historical note in this series include the large volume of correspondence relating to Utah's involvement in World War II as well as a number of other war related issues. Official documents pertaining to the internment of Japanese Americans in Utah can be found in this series as well as documents from different Jewish organizations asking for the Governor's support in ending the Holocaust in Europe. Another set of documents relating to the impact of war on Utah are official letters sent by the Governor's office to Utahans who lost family members in the conflict as well as letters to individuals who served in combat. This series also contains a number of federal and state correspondence which provide an insight into the workings of government in the 1940's and the policy decisions made then that still have relevancy today as well as a number of personal correspondence from friends and colleagues of the Governor.

ARRANGEMENT: This series is arranged chronologically by year and thereunder alphabetically by subject.

RELATED RECORDS: For more information pertaining to the defense of Utah and the country during wartime consult series 21911, DEFENSE AGENCIES CORRESPONDENCE. For information regarding activities from around the state during the Maw administration refer to the materials in series 22193, FILMS.

PROCESSING NOTE: This series was microfilmed in March 2004 and the hard copy will be kept because of the intrinsic value of the papers. It was processed by James Kichas in June,

PREFERRED CITATION: Cite the Utah State Archives and Records Service, the creating agency name, the series title, and the series number.
